MOKENA POLICE DEPARTMENT - SUMMARY OF BASIC FUNCTION

The Mokena Police Department is the division of Mokena municipal government that is responsible for the protection of life and property. This responsibility is accomplished through community-based methods including problem identification, communication with the residential and business communities, and more traditional methods such as the enforcement of laws and ordinances.

The Chief of Police is the primary administrative officer of the Department, responsible for the compiling and administering of the Department Budget, formulating policies and procedures, and formulating, implementing and communicating new programs and philosophies to the Department’s personnel. The Chief reports on a direct basis to the Village Administrator.

A Commander assists the Chief with the management of the Department and the implementation and communication of new philosophies. The Commander serves as the senior operating officer of the Department, overseeing the day-to-day functions of the Police Department. In addition to serving as Acting Chief of Police in the Chief’s absence, the Commander also prepares the monthly work schedule and assist with completion of the Department’s payroll.

The Sergeants (5) are the Department's first-line supervisors who assist the Patrol Officers under their Supervision in reaching out to the community, providing direction to Patrol Officers, and establishing a rapport with the residential and business segments of the community through a variety of community-based policing programs.

The Detectives (2) are responsible for a variety of duties which include conducting comprehensive investigations of criminal offenses and traffic crashes that result in serious injury or death, forwarding reports and information to the State’s or Village Attorney’s Offices, serving arrest warrants, subpoenas or summonses, and investigating offenses involving children.

The Department Secretary and Customer Service Representatives provide the support function of the Department. They are responsible for walk-in customer service and the administrative and clerical tasks that are generated daily. Females assigned to these positions serve on an as needed basis as Matrons, providing male officers with assistance when dealing with female prisoners.

Through it's community-based policing philosophy the Department actively solicits requests for police service from the citizens of the Village and looks to the community to assist with setting a portion of the Department's agenda, deploys police officers for non-emergency interaction with the community, and expects the line-level police officers to identify and attempt to remedy problems within the community.

During Fiscal Year 2012 (July 2011 through June 2012), the Mokena Police Department will be staffed by a minimum of thirty five employees. Of these, 30 will hold sworn full-time status holding state certifications that are issued by the Illinois Local Governmental Law Enforcement Officers Training Board. The remaining employees of the Department are civilian personnel consisting of clerical staff and crossing guards.

The Police Department provides the following services within the corporate limits of the Village on a 24-hour per day, 365-day per year basis:

·Crime Prevention, through community awareness and education programs;
·Arbitration of neighborhood and family disputes;
·Apprehension and prosecution of law and ordinance violators;
·Preventative patrols of the community; and
·Traffic law enforcement.

Each work shift is staffed with a Watch Commander (Commander or Sergeant) who provides back-up, supervisory assistance and guidance to the Patrol Officers; who are assigned specific patrol beat areas.
